INTER-DEPARTMENT MEMORANDUM

To: Scott Stiles
Dept: City Manager
Subject: URBAN LAND INSTITUTE TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE PANEL – PREPARATION OF A MARKET ASSESSMENT FOR THE VALLEY VIEW BUSINESS CORRIDOR

From: Lisa Kim
Dept: Community and Economic Development
Date: June 14, 2018

OBJECTIVE

The purpose of this memorandum is to provide details about the upcoming Urban Land Institute Technical Assistance Panel (ULI TAP), who will be assisting the City of Garden Grove with a market assessment for the Valley View Business Corridor. The ULI TAP is scheduled on July 18-19, 2018.

BACKGROUND

Since 1947, ULI's Advisory Services Program has been assisting communities by bringing together panels of seasoned real estate, planning, financing, marketing, and development experts to provide unbiased pragmatic advice on complex land use and development issues. At the local level, the ULI Orange County/Inland Empire District Council provides advisory services panels on specific issues, which are addressed in one or two days.

The panel consists of professionals, who are ULI Orange County/Inland Empire members, with expertise relative to the scope of the project. All TAP panelists are volunteering their time and expertise to participate. Sponsors request TAPs and the District Council assist the sponsor in refining the scope of the assignment and in organizing the panel's efforts. At the conclusion of the TAP, the panel issues a report with findings and recommendations to the sponsor.

DISCUSSION

ULI has partnered with the Association of California Cities Orange County (ACC-OC) to sponsor the 2018 ULI TAP. In May 2018, the City had submitted two applications for consideration: 1) the South Harbor Corridor Assessment, and 2) the Valley View Business Corridor to assist with a market assessment. ULI has selected to work with the City of Garden Grove on the Valley View Business Corridor efforts.

The two-day session has been scheduled on July 18-19, 2018. The ULI TAP will be assisting the City of Garden Grove with the following scope of services:

- Conduct an assessment of Market Viability for the Valley View Business Corridor;
- Conduct a review of existing land-use and zoning;
- Prepare strategic recommendations to address sustainability and encourage long-term retail and commercial reinvestment;
- Assist in development of a framework for vision and marketing for the Valley View Business Corridor; and,
- Facilitate community engagement efforts.

There is no cost to the City for the ULI TAP study. City staff will help facilitate site tours and coordinate focus group meetings. The preliminary agenda for the two-day sessions is summarized below:

Day 1 Activities: Conduct "tour" of the study site(s) and coordinate focus group engagement meetings with ULI TAP.

Day 2 Activities: Working session for ULI TAP to finalize recommendations, findings and presentation. Presentation to the City of Garden Grove is scheduled on Thursday, July 19 at 5:30 p.m. in the CMC (B Room).

In addition, the Valley View Business Corridor findings prepared by the ULI TAP will be presented to the ACCOC in their July meeting.

SUMMARY

The City appreciates the opportunity to collaborate with ULI and welcomes the assistance of their seasoned real estate, planning, financing, marketing, and development experts in preparing a market assessment for the Valley View Business Corridor. For additional information about participation in the focus groups to be scheduled on Wednesday afternoon of July 18, 2018, please contact Greg Blodgett at greg1@garden-grove.org. Staff will be coordinating the Community Meeting from 5:30 p.m. - 6:30 p.m. on July 19, 2018, for the ULI TAP to report their results and findings.

Attachment: ULI TAP – Preliminary Scope of Work

PRELIMINARY SCOPE OF WORK
ULI Technical Assistance Panel (TAP) Study for the Valley View Business Corridor in the City of Garden Grove

1. Market Viability (Reality Check)
 - a. ULI to assist in the assessment of the existing retail market conditions of the “Valley View Business Corridor” including but not limited to: a SWOT analysis to ascertain future retail demand, potential retail at-risk, and impact of the shrinking retail market conditions.
 - b. ULI to review existing community demographics and share how it translates to consumer behavior and future market trends.

2. Assessment of Land-Use and Zoning
 - a. ULI to conduct a comprehensive review of the existing land uses of the identified commercial properties along the Valley View Business Corridor.
 - b. ULI to conduct a comparison of the zoning and General Plan Designation(s), and assist in determining potential modifications to best address future and/or anticipated development patterns and uses.
 - c. ULI to prepare strategic recommendations to address sustainability and to encourage long-term retail and commercial “reinvestment” to the Valley View Corridor area including development opportunity scenarios that is in-line with current market trends.
 - d. Given the limited resources, the scope of work has been limited to the following commercial uses to be part of the Valley View Business Corridor:
 - i. Eastern Gateway, Next Level Sports Complex located at 12821 Knott Street
 - ii. Southern Gateway, Bridgecreek Center located at 12802 Valley View Street
 - iii. Shakey’s anchored retail center located at 12540 Valley View Street
 - iv. Rite Aid anchored retail center located at 12491 Valley View Street
 - v. Former AMF Valle View Lanes center located at 12141 Valley View Street
 - vi. Eastgate Plaza Shopping Center located at the north west corner of Valley View Street and Chapman Avenue

3. Visioning and Marketing (Branding)
 - a. ULI to assist in the development of a framework for a visioning and marketing strategy for the Valley View Business Corridor with emphasis towards business attraction initiatives, marketing opportunities, and visioning tools to assist legacy property owners.
 - b. ULI to develop an outline for a marketing plan to promote the Valley View Business Corridor and develop a potential “brand” to celebrate the small business entrepreneurs.

4. Community Engagement
 - a. ULI to facilitate community engagement in focus groups and/or interviews with key community stakeholders with consideration of incorporating an interactive online community engagement tool and/or an interactive survey.
 - b. ULI to assist in the programming of a Collaborative Outreach Excursion to engage local community stakeholders to explore successful commercial and mixed-use developments.

5. Tentative Timeline

In coordination with ULI, ACCOC and the City of Garden Grove, conduct further discussions to determine presentation of the TAP findings in July.

Streetcar Vehicle Selection is Rolling Forward

The OC Streetcar is rolling forward with the selection of Siemens Industries to manufacture and deliver the vehicles that will carry passengers along the 4.15-mile route from Santa Ana to Garden Grove. In March, the OCTA Board of Directors approved the $51.5 million contract for eight vehicles, system support, training, and spare parts and tools. Six vehicles will be in operation and two spare cars will rotate in as needed.

The streetcar model chosen, S70, has proven effective in eight cities across the country. Measuring 88 feet long, each vehicle has four double-width doors on each side and can carry 181 passengers. Special platforms built into each streetcar will allow level boarding without steps, ramps, or bridge plates.

Designs and paint schemes for vehicles and stops will be available for public review later this year.

Pre-construction Activities Underway

Pre-construction activities have already begun around the corridor. Utility companies, such as telecom providers, Southern California Edison, and the Gas Company have been potholing, relocating services on power poles and other activities to prepare for OCTA's contractor to begin later this year.

Upcoming utility relocation work will require temporary lane and parking restrictions for drivers; however, access to all businesses and residences will be maintained. OCTA will provide notification for most activities; however, there may be limited service outages that will be noticed directly from the utility to their customers.

OCTA is expected to select a contractor later this summer and work on the Maintenance and Storage Facility and track work will begin in early fall.

Celebrating Class of 2018 Graduates

With high school graduation around the corner, GGUSD launched #18in2018. Our social media campaign is an 18-day countdown to graduation and an online celebration of some of our brightest college-bound scholars.

Garden Grove High School's Cathy Duong will head on a cross-country trip next fall to attend Yale University as an english major on a pre-med track to pursue her career goal of becoming a geneticist. Speaking of cross country, Cathy is proud to have participated on Grove's cross country team for all four years of high school. She also stayed on track in her academics as she was named co-valedictorian, took seventh place with honors at the Orange County Academic Decathlon, earned the title of 2017 Questbridge College Prep Scholar, and is a National College Match Finalist. Cathy was given an exciting opportunity to fly to Boston where she spent three weeks studying biomedical and surgical research through the Questbridge STEM Quest for Excellence Scholarship.

GGUSD Celebrates its Class of 2018 Valedictorians and Salutatorians

GGUSD's Class of 2018 valedictorians and salutatorians are an impressive group! The 26 students who have earned the prestigious honor are highly accomplished and well-rounded scholars who exemplify the Garden Grove Way and are well-equipped for lifelong success.

Read their stories here!

Special Games

Did you make it to our 2018 Special Games event? If not, check out this video which captures 600 students with special needs and 400 general education students coming together to celebrate all students' abilities through a fun morning of Olympic sports. Thanks to the Special Olympics of California for helping to coordinate this wonderful event. And thank you to GGUSD's Board of Education President Bob Harden, Vice President Lan Nguyen and Trustee Teri Rocco for coming out to cheer on our athletes! #ChooseGGUSD

Exceptional Student Recognition

A big thank you to our Special Education Community Advisory Committee volunteers who organized a fantastic event last week to honor students with special needs. The event opened with beautiful music by the Los Amigos A Cappella Choir, and later students received a certificate and gift and were honored by their principals, teachers, and parents for their many accomplishments during the school year.

LQ Students Give Heritage a New Look

There is nothing more beautiful than a collaboration between GGUSD schools. The very talented La Quinta High School art students painted murals on the hand ball courts at Heritage Elementary. The new Heritage Elementary Computer Science Immersion Academy won't only have new technology, but also a new look to create an inspiring learning environment for all students.

Millionaire's Club

Hazard Elementary School hosted a red carpet ceremony to celebrate its Millionaire's Club, a group of 26 students who each read one million words this school year. With cheering parents, paparazzi-style photos, and celebrity treatment that included a limo ride to Starbucks, these 26 students were celebrated for their amazing reading accomplishments! Students who read one million words in a school year are more likely to excel at state testing and outperform in reading, spelling, and writing, as well as meeting rigorous college readiness standards. Thank you to Board Trustee Walter Muneton who attended the special ceremony. And great job to Hazard's top readers!

Meaningful Mentor

Last week, Dr. Mafi hosted an end-of-the-year celebration for the Los Amigos High School students who she has been mentoring since they were students at Russell Elementary. She recognized each student for his/her individual academic and personal accomplishments as the students finished their freshman year of high school.

Fulbright Scholarship Award Winner

Vietnamese language teacher Phuong Thao Dinh of McGarvin Intermediate School has received a grant from the U.S. Department of State and the J. William Fulbright Foreign Scholarship Board to teach abroad in Vietnam during the summer. Miss Dinh, who applied to participate in the program, is one of only 20 educators from the United States who will travel abroad through the Fulbright Distinguished Awards in Teaching Short-Term Program in 2018-2019. Cook's Distinguished School Celebration

Recently, Cook Elementary School hosted an amazing celebration to recognize students, staff, and parents on the prestigious accomplishment of receiving the state's top honor as a 2018 California Distinguished School! Thank you to Board of Education trustees Teri Rocco and Dina Nguyen for making the celebration extra special and for all you do to support students and contribute to the success of GGUSD! #ChooseGGUSD

Board Recognizes Simon Scholars

The highlight of last week's Board of Education meeting was the Class of 2020 Simon Scholars from Garden Grove, Los Amigos, and Rancho Alamitos high schools. Thanks to the generous support of the Simon Family Foundation, 24 students from GGUSD's Class of 2020 will receive a $16,000 college scholarship, laptop, and a whole host of resources including mentoring, leadership training, college coaching, application assistance, SAT/ACT preparation courses, and experiences in the arts. While in college, these students will receive leadership workshops, college life support, career networking, and the support of the Simon Scholar family which has been life-changing for so many GGUSD students since our partnership began in 2007.

Jordan Students Shine on Stage

Ninety Jordan Intermediate choir students lit up the stage in the school's production of Disney's Mulan during three mostly sold-out performances May 31 - June 2. The show was seen by an audience of over 700 people which included current Jordan students, family, alumni, and members of the community. It has become an annual tradition that people come back to see year after year. School employees and students began preparing for the production in March. Jordan's Art Club decorated the MPR and ASB helped collect tickets and hand out programs. Various teachers helped with hair, make-up, and costumes. Community members and the band director helped with sound and lighting. The school secretary painted the sets. It was a wonderful collaboration by so many members of the Jordan family.

Jordan Intermediate School students shine on stage during the school's production of Disney's Mulan.

Decision Day at Los Amigos

Los Amigos High School hosted a fun "Decision Day" with games, prizes, and photo stations to celebrate their college bound seniors and the exciting decisions they have made about attending college. These Lobos are ready for greatness!

Irvine Promotes Safety and Peace

School Safety is important at Irvine Intermediate School. Recently, Irvine's school counselor, Mrs. Santacruz, and several teachers led Irvine students in an activity to allow them a chance to express what makes them feel safe at school. The peace project inspired an important conversation about keeping the campus safe.

There is a lot of truth to the phrase, "Children drown without a sound." Anytime your kids are going to be in or around the water, you should always designate a responsible person that will watch the water and area around it. This person will be dedicated to not be distracted, and not look at their phones, read, carry on conversations, or do anything else that may take their eyes off the water area.

In Memory of Officer Donald F. Reed
#EOW June 7, 1980.

Officer Reed began his law enforcement career as a Garden Grove police officer in 1977. He quickly earned a reputation as a streetwise cop with an expertise in narcotics. On June 7, 1980, Officer Reed and three other officers entered the Cripple Creek Bar to serve a felony arrest warrant on a man in the bar. He talked to the subject and began to escort him to the back door to prevent an incident inside the bar. As they walked out the door, the man turned and fired a semi automatic handgun, striking Officer Reed in the chest and fatally wounding him.

U-Haul pickup pursuit from Garden Grove ends in Cajon Pass with driver fatally shooting himself

This still image taken from video provided by KABC-TV shows the end of a pursuit of a man in a pickup truck on the northbound Interstate 15 freeway in the Cajon Pass near San Bernardino, Calif., Wednesday afternoon, June 13, 2018. The driver who led authorities on a 90-minute freeway chase in Southern California apparently has shot himself. (KABC-TV via AP)

The driver of a white U-Haul pickup being pursued by the California Highway Patrol pulled over to the side of the 15 freeway in the Cajon Pass and fatally shot himself Wednesday afternoon, police said.

The pursuit began shortly before 5 p.m. in Garden Grove when someone at a business in the 12800 block of Joy Street called police and advised them that a family member was expected to drop off stolen firearms — handguns and a shotgun — at the business, said Lt. Carl Whitney, a Garden Grove police spokesman.

"He was afraid something might happen, so he asked us to come out and keep the peace," Whitney said. The family member told Garden Grove police that the firearms were stolen from his Fullerton residence in 2017.

Officers arrived and learned the suspect was knocking on the back door of the business as he tried to get the person at the business to come outside, police said.

As officers approached the business, the suspect fled in a white GMC U-Haul pickup.

Officers followed the truck, and the driver initially pulled over near Brookhurst Street and Lampson Avenue. But then he took off, and officers pursued the truck to the Orange County border. An Anaheim police helicopter was involved in the pursuit.

The pursuit made its way through Orange and Riverside counties on the 91 freeway before entering the northbound 215 freeway, continuing into San Bernardino County.

CHP officers pursued the pickup on the north 215 to the north 15 into the Cajon Pass. After CHP officers deployed spike strips, the driver's side front tire blew out while in the Cajon Pass and quickly shredded, throwing chunks of rubber onto the freeway. Officers conducted a traffic break to hold traffic behind the pursuit.

The driver of the pickup, who appeared to be a white man wearing a light-colored shirt and smoking cigarettes, pulled into a dirt area off the 15 freeway at 6:02 p.m., in the area of Highway 138, ending the pursuit. CHP officers attempted to engage the driver, but the suspect shot himself, Garden Grove police said in a news statement.

The suspect received medical aid at the scene and was transported to Desert Valley Hospital in Victorville. He was pronounced dead at 6:37 p.m., the Garden Grove police statement said.

Whitney said a semi-automatic gun and a gun safe were found in the vehicle.

The lieutenant said Garden Grove police had no prior contact with the suspect before Wednesday. The suspect's name was not immediately released by authorities, but Garden Grove police said he was 42 years old.

Orange County cities propose homeless shelter sites to Judge Carter

U.S. District Court Judge David O. Carter stops to speak with Shane Allen, 36, who was living along the Santa Ana River Trail in Anaheim, in February. /Photo by Mark Rightmire, The Orange County Register/SCNG

PUBLISHED: June 13, 2018 at 12:13 pm | UPDATED: June 13, 2018 at 8:26 pm

Three Orange County cities have proposed building a handful of emergency homeless shelters that would house up to 700 people.

The announcement of the new shelters proposed in Anaheim, Huntington Beach and Santa Ana came Wednesday morning in U.S. District Court David O. Carter's courtroom in Santa Ana.

Carter gathered mayors, city managers, police chiefs and other representatives of Orange County and its 34 cities to share their progress at addressing a homeless situation residents and officials say has mushroomed in recent years, resulting in public encampments along the Santa Ana River Trail, in the Santa Ana Civic Center and along railroad tracks in several cities. He cautioned officials during the morning portion of the court hearing not to give details on locations at that time.

Carter is overseeing a lawsuit brought on behalf of several homeless people who were living along the river trail when the county began a major effort to clear the encampment early this year.

The plaintiffs argued there was nowhere for them to go because the county has a shortage of affordable housing and its emergency shelter beds can't accommodate people with certain disabilities.

On Wednesday, Carter also heard from Orange County Supervisor Andrew Do, who presented a plan to build 2,700 units of affordable permanent housing over seven years at a cost of $930 million. Funding sources would include federal and state grants, but a gap of several hundred million dollars remains.

No specific sites were mentioned for the affordable housing, but Do said they should be spread around the county rather than concentrated in a few cities.

Do also proposed the county and representatives of its north, central and southern cities could form a joint powers agency to coordinate their efforts and boost access to funding.

Carter said he's pleased with the progress officials are making at forging a comprehensive plan to provide shelter and services, but noted they're not yet finished.

After comments in open court, Carter continued discussions with city and county officials privately in his chambers well into the afternoon.

Outside the courthouse, Anaheim Councilman Jose Moreno said staying mum about shelter sites for now is important because some cities may still be negotiating with property owners or nonprofit groups that would run the shelters, and ultimately the plaintiffs will need to sign off on whatever solution is reached.

As to how Anaheim residents might react to proposed shelters in their city, Moreno said he hopes residents will "listen thoughtfully."

"I think at the end people want solutions," he said. "The alternative is what we have now."

Consumer prices in Los Angeles and Orange counties up 4.1%, biggest jump since 2008

PUBLISHED: June 13, 2018 at 12:57 pm | UPDATED: June 13, 2018 at 12:58 pm

Inflation in Los Angeles and Orange counties was rising at a 4.1 percent annual rate in May, the highest in nearly a decade.

The latest reading of the two-county region's Consumer Price Index is far above the 2.8 percent gain for all of 2007 and just below the most recent high of 4.5 percent in September 2008.

Here are seven inflation trends you should be watching ...

1. Overall housing costs in Los Angeles and Orange counties rose 4.8 percent in a year while the rent index was up 5 percent.
2. L.A.-O.C. gasoline cost 23.4 more in the year. Household energy cost 2.5 percent more.
3. Food costs rose 1.6 percent in a year. Eating out expenses rose 3.4 percent.
4. Medical bills were 2.5 percent higher.
5. Apparel prices were 0.4 percent lower.
6. Nationally, the average U.S. city saw consumer prices rise 2.8 percent.
7. A new Consumer Price Index for Riverside and San Bernardino counties shows inflation up 1 percent between May and March. Prices in the L.A.-O.C. area rose 0.8 percent in the same period while U.S.city inflation rose 0.8 percent.

McGarvin Intermediate School teacher Phuong Thao Dinh provides exceptional Vietnamese language instruction and recently received a Fulbright Scholarship to teach in Vietnam during the 2018-2019 school year.

GG teacher earns Fulbright grant

Phuong Thao Dinh will teach in Vietnam this summer

Garden Grove Unified School District Vietnamese language teacher Phuong Thao Dinh of McGarvin Intermediate School has received a grant from the U.S. Department of State and the J. William Fulbright Foreign Scholarship Board to teach abroad in Vietnam during the summer.

Dinh, who applied to participate in the program, is one of only 20 educators from the United States who will travel abroad through the Fulbright Distinguished Awards in Teaching Short-Term Program in 2018-2019. She was chosen as a recipient of a Fulbright grant based on her academic and professional achievement and demonstrated leadership potential.

"We are proud to have teachers here at GGUSD like Miss Dinh who are recognized as leaders in their profession and who seek out opportunities to improve instructional strategies in their area of expertise," said Lan Nguyen, Board of Education vice president.

According to the Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs, "the Fulbright Distinguished Awards in Teaching Program sends U.S. teachers abroad and brings international teachers to the United States for a semester of independent study and professional development focused on sharing international best practices and developing students' global competence. Participants complete an inquiry project, take courses, share their expertise with local teachers and students, and engage in action planning to implement what they learn on the program when they return home."

Last month, the district received the 2018 Advocacy Leadership award for the district's outstanding cultural and linguistic responsiveness to English learners and emerging bilingual students.

The Board of Education honored the many accomplishments of the Garden Grove Unified School District's Class of 2018 valedictorians at its May 15 meeting.

School Board celebrate 'stars'

Twenty six valedictorians, salutatorians eye their futures

The Garden Grove Unified School District Board of Education extends its heartfelt congratulations the Class of 2018 valedictorians and salutatorians on their impressive academic and personal achievements.

The 26 students who have earned the prestigious honor are highly accomplished and well-rounded scholars who exemplify the Garden Grove way and are well-equipped for lifelong success.

Pacifica High School's Jerlene Hsueh is a National Merit Scholar, a recognition earned by less than one 1 percent of students nationwide. Garden Grove High School's Scott Belair, who will attend the Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT), took 20 Advanced Placement exams even though he was not able to take the courses for many of them. Hare High School's Amy Salazar, a mother of two, stayed the course and emerged as a campus leader. La Quinta High School's Christopher Mai earned a 4.62 GPA while receiving perfect scores on the math and essay portions of the SAT, receiving a 1580 overall score.

Bolsa's Long Ho will attend Princeton University in the fall to major in computer science and Garden Grove High School's Cathy Duong will major in English at Yale beginning a pre-med track with the hopes of becoming a geneticist.

across the state and country, including University of California Los Angeles, UC Irvine, UC Berkley, UC San Diego, Princeton, Yale, MIT, and Wellesley College.

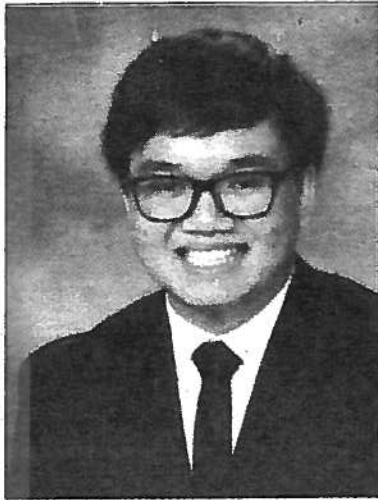

"Our valedictorians and salutatorians are rising stars who have taken advantage of all of the outstanding programs GGUSD schools provide," said Bob Harden, Board of Education president. "We are so proud of their many accomplishments and we are confident these students will become our future doctors and lawyers, tech industry leaders and innovators, and perhaps a future president of the United States of America; no matter where their journeys lead, they will leave a lasting impression in this world."

Students STEAM forward in county contest

Their inventions impress judges at ocMaker Challenge

The Garden Grove Unified School District led the way in innovation at the 2018 ocMaker Challenge with more teams that placed in the STEAM-based competition than any district in Orange County.

The competition challenges students to design and build or repurpose a product that will solve a problem, want, or need. Student teams from McGarvin Intermediate as well as La Quinta and Pacifica high schools saw their products place in four different divisions.

"GGUSD students should be proud of their excellence in innovation, a skill that will catapult them to careers that have not even been invented yet," said Bob Harden, Board of Education president. "GGUSD's success in this competition is a reflection of our emphasis on STEAM instruction and a testament to the hard work and talent of our students and teachers."

The team of La Quinta's Brandee Nguyen, Anh Nguyen, and Paul Phaminhung took second place for level 1 with their invention called the "Easy Lid." The "Easy Lid" attaches to the side of cooking pans, allowing for the lid to have a place to rest while including a reservoir for water vapor to collect while also keeping things cleaner and saving space.

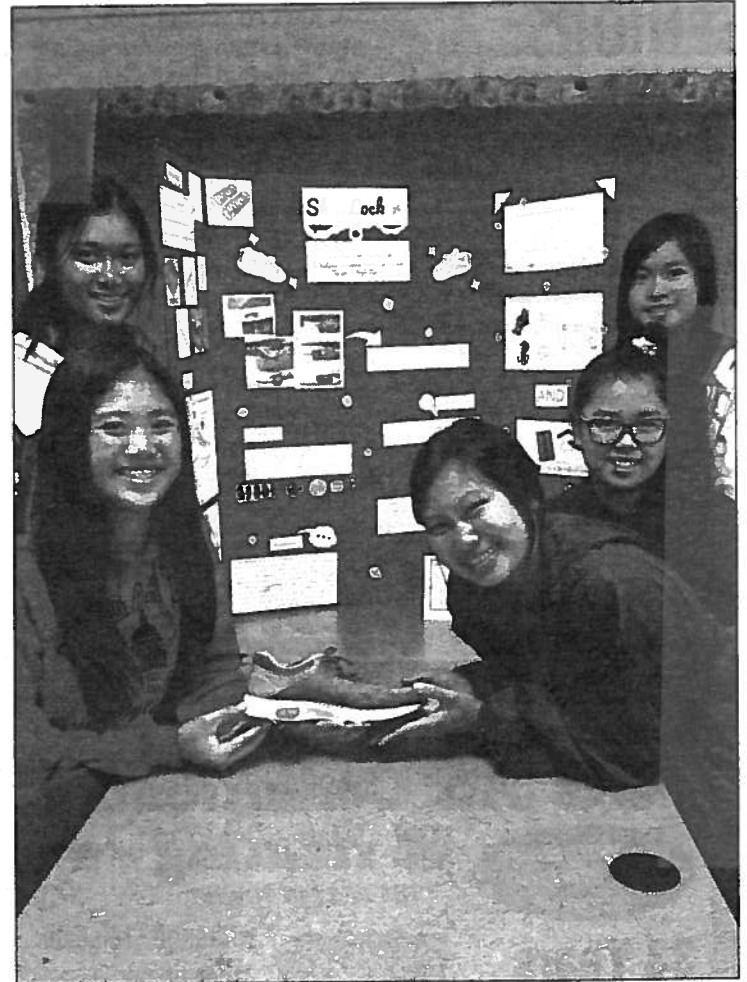

The team of Emily Vu and Brian Duong, also from La Quinta High School, placed second for level 2 with their creation, "Omni Plug," a device that allows for safe space saving functionality when plugging items into wall sockets.

The team of An Nguyen, Annie Huynh, Kayla Nguyen, Kellyann Bui, and Jane Le from McGarvin Intermediate took home third place in level 1 with their invention "Shoe Locker," a small plastic tray that fits into a recessed compartment on the sole of a shoe that allows for safekeeping of small objects.

Matt Moslenko and John Larson of Pacifica High School came in second place in level 4 with their product called "King Crush," which is an automatic aluminum can crusher.

Motion: Kanzler Second: Truong

Ayes: (3) Kanzler, Salazar, Truong

Noes: (2) Brietigam, Nguyen

Absent: (2) Lazenby, Lehman

MATTERS FROM COMMISSIONERS: Commissioner Salazar expressed her concerns regarding both commercial and residential parking issues and suggested staff look beyond today's minimum parking requirements, as current parking standards may not work in the future.

Staff responded that State Density Bonus projects have constrained parking requirements in order to obtain the low income units due to parking being expensive to provide, therefore parking is limited. Staff pointed out that the City was undergoing a downtown parking plan study consisting of counts and surveys of old and new uses that generate a variety of parking styles, and, to finance a parking structure, people would need to pay for the parking.

Commissioner Kanzler commented that philosophically, more buildings for lower income residents, smaller spaces, and an increase in available public transportation were key to solving the parking problems.

Chair Brietigam commented that we live in a car culture, though other transportation options should be encouraged.

Staff then explained that there was plenty of parking around Main Street and that a vital Main Street would be one in which there were more people than cars. At its peak, the west parking lot was only 55% full. Another example, with new residential Accessory Dwelling Units (ADU's), only one parking space would be allowed if the distance to the nearest bus stop was beyond half of a mile. Staff then noted that state laws limit the Planning Commission's discretion in parking matters and suggested zoning training for Commissioners on a one on one, or group meeting basis.

Chair Brietigam then mentioned that the paint on a two-story building located at northeast corner of Western Avenue and Acacia Avenue needed refurbishment. Staff would have Code Enforcement look into the matter.

Chair Brietigam then suggested that the City recycle the extra street light poles, from the Verizon and Sprint projects, to be utilized in dark lit areas which could be designated by the Police Department. Staff added that typically, to add a light to a street, the neighborhood community would fill out a form to submit to Ana Neal in the Engineering Division with the light cost shared among the residents.

Lastly, Chair Brietigam challenged the City to increase the sworn Police staff to 200 by the year 2020, along with five additional firefighters.

MATTERS FROM STAFF: Staff noted that the June 7th Study Session on CEQA 101 would begin at 6:00 p.m. Also, for the June 21st meeting, staff would like to begin the meeting at 6:00 p.m. The Commission agreed.

ADJOURNMENT: At 8:30 p.m. to the next Special Meeting of the Garden Grove Planning Commission on Thursday, June 7, 2018, at 6:00 p.m. in the Council Chamber of the Community Meeting Center, 11300 Stanford Avenue, Garden Grove.

Motion: Truong Second: Salazar

Fight Misguided Effort that Jeopardizes Over 5,000 Road Projects Statewide, Puts Californians' Safety at Risk

June 8, 2018

The June 5 Proposition 69 victory to prohibit the Legislature from diverting SB 1 revenues for non-transportation purposes was just the start of a larger campaign to protect those funds.

In November, voters will likely see an ill-conceived ballot measure that would eliminate billions of dollars of transportation funds by repealing SB 1. More than 5,000 transportation improvement projects are at risk of being halted. This would threaten driver and pedestrian safety, increase traffic congestion, cost jobs and hurt taxpayers.

Voters overwhelmingly passed Prop. 69, sending a strong signal that they want their transportation dollars going only to fund transportation projects. They imposed stronger accountability projections to transportation funds at a time when Californians have clearly communicated that fixing their crumbling roads is a top priority. Those behind this effort to repeal transportation funding and eliminate thousands of road improvement projects do not have the best interests of Californians in mind.

The League and the other members of the Coalition to Protect Local Transportation Improvements is committed to making sure that Californians do not lose the $5 billion annually going to fix the state's streets, roads, bridges, freeways and transit system.

Learn more about this dangerous measure on the coalition website.

Budget Agreement Includes $500 Million in One-Time Funding for Local Governments to Address Homelessness

Legislative Budget Committee Wrapped Up its Work Late Friday, Full Legislature to Vote on Budget Later this Week

June 11, 2018

On Friday morning, Gov. Jerry Brown, Assembly Speaker Anthony Rendon (D-Lakewood) and Senate President pro Tempore Toni Atkins (D-San Diego) announced that they had reached a FY 2018–19 budget agreement.

The full agreement and associated trailer bills will be finalized this week to meet the Legislature's June 15 constitutional deadline to pass a budget. Positive for cities, the budget includes a one-time $500 million allocation for local governments for emergency aid for homelessness. This amount is twice the amount the Governor included in his May Budget Revise.

Throughout the budget process this year, the League supported additional funding for cities to address California's growing homelessness crisis. Funding in the FY 2018–19 budget comprises $500 million in one-time Homeless Emergency Aid Block Grant. This includes:

- $250 million that can be accessed through the existing Continuum of Care process;
- $150 million in direct grants to cities over 330,000 population (which have the highest concentrations of the state's homeless population); and
- $100 million allocated based on local homeless populations to the Continuum of Care.

The final budget also includes a proposal to place the No Place Like Home program on the November 2018 ballot to resolve a legal ambiguity associated with dedicating mental health funding through Proposition 63 (2004) to build 10,000 units of housing for the homeless mentally ill through the No Place Like Home program.

Next Steps

The Legislature will likely vote on the budget on Thursday or Friday. The League will issue its analysis on how the budget affects cities.

Long Beach Mayor to Welcome Annual Conference Attendees

Early-Bird Pricing Until July 18

June 14, 2018

Registration recently opened for the League's 2018 Annual Conference and Expo.

The conference will take place on Sept. 12-14, at the Long Beach Convention Center. This year the League is honored to have Long Beach Mayor Robert Garcia welcome conference attendees with the following letter.

As Mayor of the 7th most populous city in California, I am excited to welcome the League of California Cities to our beautiful oceanside community. Long Beach is the only city with a downtown waterfront between San Francisco and San Diego, and we are proud to be one of the country's most diverse cities.

Long Beach is truly international, home to dozens of distinct neighborhoods and communities where residents and business owners thrive. We have a growing aerospace and aviation industry, with Virgin Orbit and Gulfstream near the Long Beach Airport, and we are proud to support local entrepreneurs through our exceptional educational institutions. Our city attracts visitors from all over the world to the Queen Mary, Aquarium of the Pacific, the Toyota Grand Prix, Pride Parade and Festival, and many other events.

Our city is also transforming before our eyes. You'll see cranes in the sky and developments going up all around Long Beach. We have implemented a 10-year Economic Development Blueprint to support entrepreneurs, workers and investors, and we are seeing record-low rates of unemployment and crime.

The future is looking very bright for Long Beach. The Port of Long Beach continues to set records for cargo volumes while dramatically reducing emissions, our airport is consistently ranked among the best in the country, and our Long Beach College Promise helps pave the way for residents to get good-paying jobs after their education.

The League of California Cities is an important resource and advocate for many of these developments. The League is a great partner for the entire region on transportation, sustainability, homelessness and economic development. I am thankful for all the member cities and the League staff for your hard work on behalf of the people of California, and I'm excited to work together on these important policies, supporting good government and progress in our state.

On behalf of the City of Long Beach, thank you for visiting, and I hope you enjoy the conference.

Go Long Beach!

Mayor Robert Garcia
City of Long Beach

The annual meeting will bring together over 1,800 California city leaders for a three-day educational and networking event aiming to provide opportunities for attendees to gain perspectives and knowledge on real issues challenging cities, plus deepen relationships and share with others in similar fields.

Registration Information

The full conference registration includes access to educational sessions, Wednesday host-city reception, networking events, Thursday lunch with exhibitors, and the Friday closing luncheon.

The $50 early bird discount will be offered to attendees who register by July 18. Full conference registrations start at $525 for member cities and will rise to $575 as of July 19.

Lodging Information

There are several fantastic properties for lodging this year around the Long Beach Convention Center. Reduced room rates are available for registered attendees; please register first before receiving the links in your registration confirmation email to reserve hotel rooms. Hotel reservations are only available online.

Register early, as space is limited. Please email education@cacities.org with any questions about the event.

Deceptive Corporate Tax Trick Threatens Quality of Life in Cities, Jeopardizes Local Services

June 14, 2018

Sacramento Mayor Darrell Steinberg is warning that the Corporate Tax Trick initiative is disingenuous.

His warning came during a special hearing of the Assembly Local Government and Revenue and Taxation committees on June 13 to shed light on a dangerous initiative, funded by billion dollar corporations, to shift a bigger tax burden onto families and small businesses while hurting local communities.

Committee Chairs Assembly Member Cecilia Aguiar-Curry (D-Winters) and Assembly Member Autumn Burke (D-Inglewood) convened the hearing. In her opening remarks, Assembly Member Aguiar-Curry emphasized that she looks at policy from the lens of having served as mayor of a small and rural city. "I worry that we (with this initiative) will have some unintended consequences for our smaller communities."

She closed the hearing reiterating the same point. "My concern is that I think of the entire state and the small and rural cities. I don't forget where I came from (local government)."

Mayor Steinberg's powerful testimony focused on how he is working to transform Sacramento's economy and the ways in which this proposal would devastate his city and others. "It is disingenuous and a gross overreach," said Mayor Steinberg.

He called it an abuse of authority and cautioned that it will have dramatic consequences for cities that are trying to do the right thing. Sacramento could have a $50 million hole in its budget and that will force service cuts and the loss of police and fire.

Terry Brennand with SEIU stressed that the Corporate Tax Trick is not a taxpayer revolt. "This is a thinly disguised effort to thwart local efforts to make them (corporations) pay for their impacts on communities."

"It's really clear that this measure favors the interest of the sponsors and it's a vast overreach," testified League Legislative Director Dan Carrigg.

Assembly Member Richard Bloom (D-Santa Monica), a former Santa Monica mayor and council member, expressed his outrage. It (the Corporate Tax Trick) wants to block the will of the people and what kind of democracy do we live in where we try to institutionalize it and institutionalize it at the instance of a few corporations who want to see that happen?" ...

Coalition Forms to Oppose Corporate Tax Trick

The League is part of the Committee to Protect Our Communities, a coalition of local government and union groups that formed to oppose the Corporate Tax Trick. If it qualifies for the November 2018 ballot, citizens will need to know that it is the opposite of taxpayer protection by making it possible for special corporate interests, such as Big Soda and Big Oil, to avoid paying the fees and taxes they currently pay, even when their business harms local communities or hurts the environment.

The Corporate Tax Trick would undercut local voters' ability to determine what local investments are important and instead gives corporations a "free lunch" by letting them not pay their fair share for the impact of their business on California communities. The measure's provisions would put essential municipal services — public safety, healthcare, libraries and infrastructure — at serious risk.

The corporations behind this proposal do not have the interests of families, small businesses and the communities they call home at heart. Funders, who have already dumped millions of dollars into the effort to gather signatures of the measure, come from oil, insurance, pharma, soda and others. The largest funder is the American Beverage Association, which spent over $25 million two years ago in California trying to defeat, unsuccessfully, local soda tax initiatives to prevent childhood obesity and improve the health of communities.

Fight the Corporate Tax Trick and Support CitiPAC

The League is calling on California city officials to help fight the Corporate Tax Trick and there are several ways to get involved:

- Join the coalition: Visit the campaign website (<https://protectourcommunitiesca.com>), and join the coalition's efforts to make sure this ill-conceived proposal doesn't hurt California.
- Support CitiPAC: Contributing to CitiPAC is another way to get involved with the League's efforts at the ballot box. CitiPAC is the League's political action committee that raises resources to advocate on ballot measures. Unlike candidate PAC's, CitiPAC funds can only be used to advocate on statewide ballot measures. The funds are never used to support candidates for office. CitiPAC funds are raised through individual contributions from city officials and employees as well as through sponsorships of events throughout the year. The most direct way that city officials, staff and others can support CitiPAC and the League's advocacy efforts is through a personal financial contribution. These funds will be used to pay for things such as signature gathering, mass media and communications, campaign consultants and voter engagement.

Learn about the League's 2018 Ballot Measure Activity

This is a crucial year for cities at the ballot box and in addition to opposing the Corporate Tax Trick, the League is involved in several other measures on the November statewide ballot.

After voters overwhelmingly passed Proposition 69 in June to put a lockbox on transportation funds, the League and the Coalition to Protect Local Transportation Improvements, have already begun to fight an effort to repeal SB 1, the transportation infrastructure funding package. Thousands of transportation improvement projects statewide could be halted if the over $5 billion of funding that SB 1 generates annually is taken away. This would jeopardize public safety, worsen congestion, cost drivers and taxpayers more in the long term and hurt job creation and the economy.
